

The Chaotic Soup of Quantum Possibilities

Walk Your Talk, Chaplains Talk Sept, 1, 2024

Affirmation: I am open to the Infinite Possibilities that are in the Heart of Creation

CAROL:

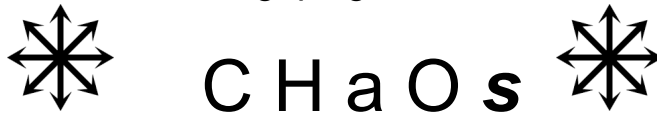

Take a moment to ponder C H a O s. What is C H a O s to you?

What has been your experience with C H a O s?

The dictionary (Oxford) tells us that C H a O s is complete disorder and confusion.

Unpredictable random behavior, owing to great sensitivity to small changes in conditions. The late 15th century French / Latin definition is:

Formless primordial matter. A gaping void.

The opposite of C H a O s, of course, is calm, peace and order. How fascinating to explore C H a O s and learn that it is the heart of creation!

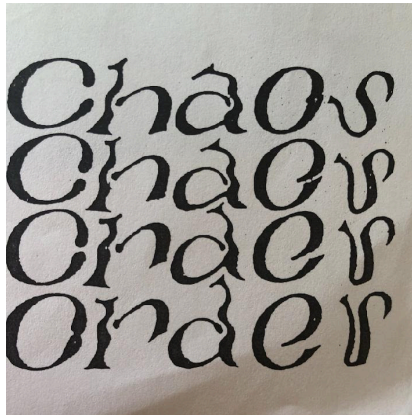

What does the Chaos symbol / logo mean?

The chaos of the universe & the beauty of its random nature.

PATRICIA:

As a child we may see it as Surviving Chaos.

But the Order is in there with only a slight shift in perspective.

Chaos–Order - God spark?

Chinese symbol....where brilliant dreams are born. Joy-Us Inner Peace

MARLENE:

Journey out of Chaos - The beginning and middle parts of chaos can look dark and frightening, feel scary and be filled with uncertainty. As we make our choices to experience other possibilities we can begin to feel the warmth of Spirit and see the light leading us onward in our journey.

Quantum Possibilities Tips & Tools:

- * Listen/Be open for the guidance/whispers of Spirit.
- * Willingness

People - Family, Friends, Acquaintances

Prayer Work/ Breathwork

Affirmations, Journaling, Reading

Spend time in nature, Listen to Music

Physical Movement/Expression (Art, Dance, Singing, Play Instrument, +)

“As you listen to music, or something musical that is offering a rhythm for breathing – as you focus on something, it will diffuse your chaos so much quicker than if you tried to think your way out of it.” ~ AbrahamHicks

I'm an impromptu poetic singer - On the Saturday that hurricane Hone winds were swirling around, I wasn't afraid, yet I could feel the tension and stress surrounding the event. I started to poetically sing a little ditty about the storm and rain coming. It totally made the energy so much lighter and I was having so much fun that I started adding some dance movements. Energetic shift had occurred.

ADAM:

God is the Ultimate DJ, with all possibilities on his/her playlist

Remember you are made in the image and likeness of the Ultimate Creator

There is an expression: “You can do anything..., You can't do Everything”. The infinite is too much to fully get to in one lifetime. All the possibilities are there. Where you wind up, depends on which path you follow. And the path following is done by what you believe in, talk about, dwell on, and fill your days and your consciousness with. I believe Surfers are zen masters. They know they can't do a thing to change the natural waves and cycles of flow in front of them. But they make a sport out of being a keen observer, and finding a joyous way to ride in harmony with and thru great chaos.

CHRISTINE, (paraphrased by Adam) :

So if you find yourself surrounded by what appears to be chaos, settle into that Christ Consciousness within you. Listen to the wise voice, that Loving Awareness that is showing you the Oneness and perfection at the center of it all. Trust that the special mix of quantum flavors will make exactly the soup of the day that is the one for you.
